The city of Milan dedicates one year of events to Leonardo da Vinci (1452 – 1519) during the 500th anniversary of his death.

Leonardo da Vinci spent almost 18 years, from 1482 to 1499, at the Court of Ludovico Sforza "The Moor" and Milan was the site of his most productive years as both an artist and a universal genius.

Equita wants to honour Leonardo with a selection of pictures representing his most significant artworks in Milan.
